

Congratulations to the Award Recipients and Finalists – 2010 International Women’s Day Leadership Award

Name	Surname	Company	Position
Sue	Bampton	Grotec	Director
Abbe	Bradbury	Founder/ Artistic Director	Dynamite Studios Aust
Sue	Daly	Head of Middle School	All Saints Anglican School
Clarissa	Duncan	Job Futures - Jobcare - Spiritus	Site Manager Southport & Burleigh Heads
Tania	Fouquet	Intimo Lingerie	Director
Louise	Fowler	Arbonne	Independent Regional Vice President
Cheryl	Freeman	EAZintuit	Owner / Presenter EAZintuit
Nicole	Hintz	LJ Hooker - Ormeau
Ruth	Knight	Manager	Life without Barriers/Lifehouse
Jacqueline	Mengler	Branch Manager	Patersons
Lisa	Murdoch	Landmark White Valuers	Director
Claudette	Neave	Rosie’s/ St Vincent’s	Volunteer and community service
Kate	Rose	Australian Army	Captain - Australian Army Reserve and Legal Officer
Valerie	Russell	Volunteering Gold Coast Inc.
Leticia	Vargas	Volunteering Gold Coast Inc.	Volunteer Services Coordinator

WINNERS

SUE BAMPTON – 2010 IWD Leadership Award presented by

Suzanne (Sue) Bampton is an accomplished horticulturist and landscape designer. It is through the creation and development of her companies that she has been able to enjoy her passion for designing, constructing and caring for landscapes on the Gold Coast since 1988.

ABBE BRADBURY – Young Business Women’s Encouragement Award presented by

A young performer and mum, dreams and a great deal of drive she established Dynamite Studios Australia. In three years Dynamite Studios has expanded to a modern studio in the entertainment precinct, Northern Gold Coast and enrolments have exceeded 150, offering financial scholarships to gifted students. Concurrently Dynamite Management was established and currently provides part-time employment for approx 70 staff. The enables students with professional experience. Abbe has also encouraged two other complimentary business’s into the area.

RUTH KNIGHT - Outstanding Inspirational Role Model Award presented by

Ruth Knight works in the community sector and has been awarded a Centenary Medal for her services to the homeless. She works as a consultant and volunteers her time with Gold Coast charity Lifehouse Project.

CLAUDETTE NEAVE – Gold Coast Community Leadership Award presented by

Some people go for extreme sports, Claudette practices extreme charity. She has a compulsion to commit serious acts of compassion with an energy that has never waned for the last 50 years. She attends to anyone marginalised in her community as if they were immediate family.

Congratulations to all our Award Finalists

Sue Daly

Sue’s most significant achievements are the creation, from scratch, of a Middle School which has a national reputation as an exemplar in its field. Tenacity, trust, knowledge, the ability to adapt and negotiate change, a keenness to look at things from different perspectives, while keeping the best interests of the students central has contributed to the success. Sue is also proud of the many teachers involved in this project who have become such outstanding educators.

Clarissa Duncan

Clarissa Duncan has worked her way through to a senior management role with a large organisation. Still in her 20’s, Clarissa shows the maturity and business sense of many years beyond that of most young women her age. She certainly breaks the stereo-type of a modern day Generation Y.

Tania Fouquet

Tania has been running her own lingerie consultancy business, for more than 6 years, introducing women to the opportunity of a new lifestyle to suit their life and family. Tania is also in a joint venture, in developing a revolutionary system to improve shopping experiences through the use of modern “under utilized” technology to simplify everyone’s life.

Louise Fowler

Award winning inspirational leader in the direct selling industry. Louise’s passion is empowering women to have the confidence to take control of their financial future and to be the best they can be.

Cheryl Freeman

In 2007, after eight years in Job Network, I created EAZintuit, the seminar teaching Job Services Australia’s disadvantaged female clients how to ATTRACT employment and more happiness into their lives.

Nicole Hintz

Business owner Nicole Hintz has built an award winning and successful real estate team at LJ Hooker Ormeau through leadership, excellence in customer service and commitment to community.

Jacki Mengler

Jacki’s most significant achievements include -

- Appointed director Australian and New Zealand sports Law Association
- Initiated and established company involvement in the Griffith University Professional Development Program
- Coordinated sponsorship of resources Rising Stars National premium Luncheon Series; and
- Successfully lobbied and helped implement policy changes to National Sporting Federations post Sydney 2000

Lisa Murdoch

Lisa Murdoch has over 20 years experience in commercial property valuation. She has a keen interest in social justice as a Board Member of the Gold Coast Housing Company and a former Rotarian

Kate Rose

Kate was born and educated in Canberra at Canggerra Girls Grammar. She left for the UK in 1988, returning 2008 as a Defence Force officer, linguist and mother.

Valerie Russell

Valerie works for Voluntering Gold Coast, through her ideas, development and execution of their promotional displays she has helped network the community organisations that otherwise would not have made the connection. She has helped the public and community sector and encouraged volunteering.

Leticia Vargas

Leticia Vargas has worked in community for 10 years. Born in Uruguay, her family migrated to Australia when she was 3 years old. Communities and the people they comprise is what Leticia is passionate about and is an advocate for community engagement and growth.